IN APPRECIATION

We, the Class of '79, wish to express our sincere gratitude to Mrs. Phyllis Remington.

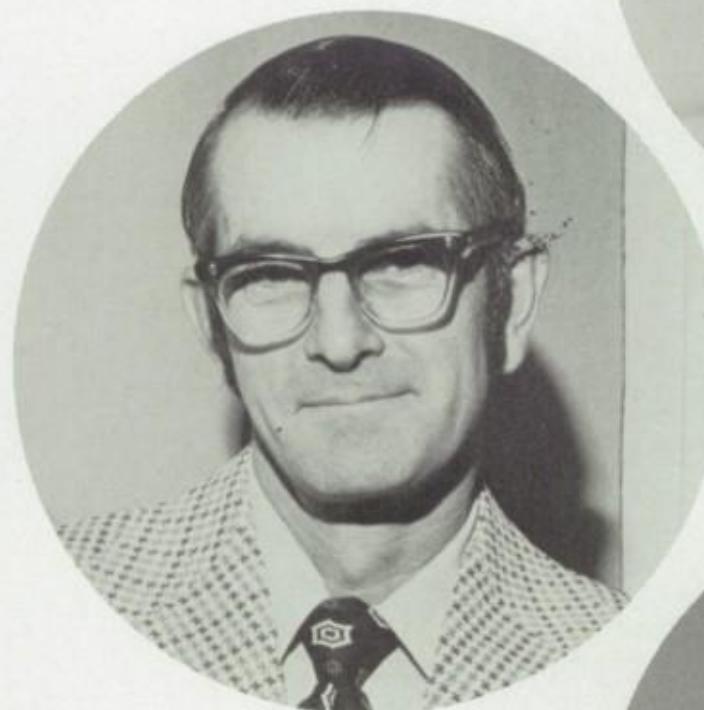

Mrs. Remington became our advisor two years ago when we were unorganized and a bit unruly. Since then, she has guided us through raffles, dances and magazine sales. We have all come to love and admire her.

Thank you — Phyllis — for all of your support and for always being there.

REMINISCING

Lately we've been thinking,
Where will we be going?
Who will we be knowing?
When we're no longer here:

With Colton far behind,
But still on our mind;
We'll keep every moment,
Whatever we find.

Thinking back over the years,
Hearty laughs and warm tears,
Cherish every moment,
May they be bad or good.

There's so much we've done;
We've lost and we've won,
And yet through it all
We've had our share of fun.

None of us noticed,
Time was flying by.
Now it's upon us,
Time to say good-bye.

We will leave behind us;
Those of you who taught us,
Those of you who brought us;
Such love we can't forget.

The best we have found,
In friends we abound,
And what will our lives be
Without you around?

We have learned to live here,
And we bid you all to hear,
We will always hold you dear,
These years at C.P.C.S.

We'll miss you we know,
Yet can we show,
That pull in our hearts,
That says stay and yet go.

None of us noticed,
How time was flying by,
The Class of '79
Bids you all good-bye.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Alan Austin — Leaves his four morning study halls to any junior who wants to come to school in the morning.

Mary Cayward — Leaves her clarinet to whomever can remove the rust.

Sue Clough — Leaves her locker to anyone who wants to be late for class.

Barb Davis — Leaves her hairstyles to Tamie Tucker.

Sally Despaw — Leaves locker #66 to whomever wants to get ripped off.

Lisa Emburey — Leaves the school to the poor souls who have to come back next year.

Jeff Ford — Leaves his 1970 Barracuda to whomever can fix it.

Beth Frank — Leaves all her ladylike manners and proper etiquette to her cousin, Jo.

Cathy Greene — Just leaves.

Morris Hawley — Leaves a six pack of soft drink to Bobby Weems and Randy Coller to help him celebrate his graduation (if he makes it).

Florence Hudar — Leaves her book, "2001 Insults for All Occasions", to anyone on the basketball team who wants to get on Mr. Collins' good (?) side.

Ron LaPointe — Leaves his good grammar and nothing to nobody.

Tom Manfred — Leaves his ability to keep his eyes open to Bill Waite (He's going to need it).

Gay Parrotte — Leaves her uneaten school lunches to whomever wants to just sit in the cafeteria.

Mark Randall — Leaves his ability to play basketball to Dan McKinley along with the hope that he grows taller.

Jeff Regan — Leaves his ability "not" to get caught smoking in school to Roy Gaurin.

Mike Regan — Leaves his sympathy to those who will not or cannot graduate.

Missy Regan — Leaves her nose in the air to Mary Baker and Robin Selleck.

Tammy Scott — Leaves her mother to the Music Department and the hope that she will learn to play the piano.

Jeremy Scovil — Leaves his '55 Ford truck to the school for trash removal — if it can make it to the dump — leave it there.

Bonnie Severance — Leaves her locker to the unfortunate freshman who will have it next year.

Greg Shea — Is not generous enough to leave anything to anybody.

JoAnn Sheeran — Leaves all the hassles of the yearbook to any junior who needs something to keep busy, along with a supply of aspirin and good luck in meeting future deadlines. JoAnn also leaves her ripped spikes, broken glasses and lots of tape to Tina Regan for next soccer season.

John Sheeran — Leaves his luck (?) with cars to Peggs Molnar Insurance Company.

Shawn Taylor — Leaves her ability to read out loud in English class to whomever wants to volunteer.

Shelley Taylor — Leaves to Mrs. Shea the ability to tell Shawn and her apart. Shelley also leaves her gym locker to Bridget McCarthy if she can get near it.

Connie Ulrich — Leaves her ability to get along with Mrs. Loconti to Tracy Scovil (she needs it).

Dot Ulrich — Leaves her seats in school to any adult who has the courage to fill them.

Tim Watson — Leaves his driving record to Randy Coller if he ever gets his license.

Tracy Whitcomb — Doesn't leave anything.

Doug White — Leaves all his basketball skills to all the players who sit the bench. Doug also leaves his hair to Mrs. Loconti and Mrs. Kissam.

Tim White — Leaves his front row, first seat in study hall, to any future troublemakers.

Barb Wilson — Leaves her nickname to anyone who wants it. She also leaves Mrs. Loconti to any junior who is fortunate enough to get her.

Janet Wright — Leaves Office Education to Heather Taillon, and wish her luck. Also, English IV to anybody who wants to put up with it.

Mr. Skiff,

To one of the teachers I can get along with. Without having a lot of home work.

Some day I'll catch up
to eating with silver wear the way
you showed me and everyone else.
From one of your students,
Carol Smith

Yours truly
Carol Smith
